

'64 MARINER

All I need is a tall ship, and a star to steer her by.
—Masfield

DEDICATION

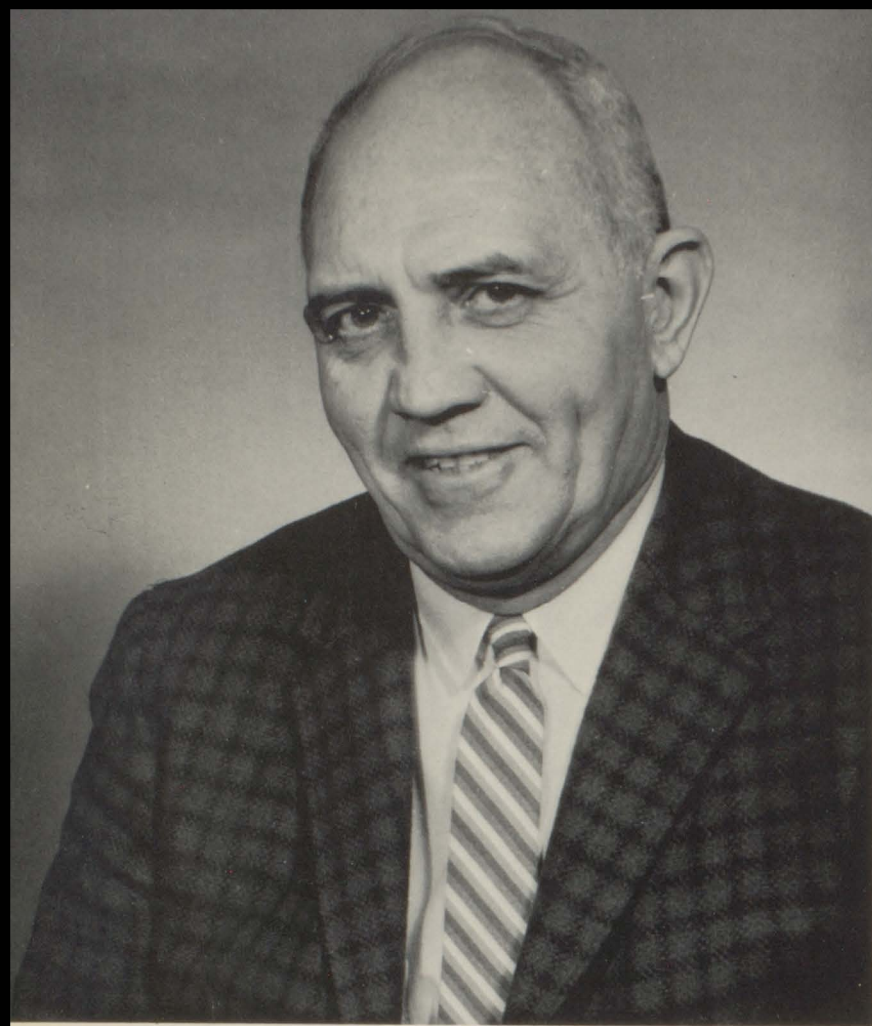

We, the class of 1964, dedicate our yearbook to Lowell W. Lamb.

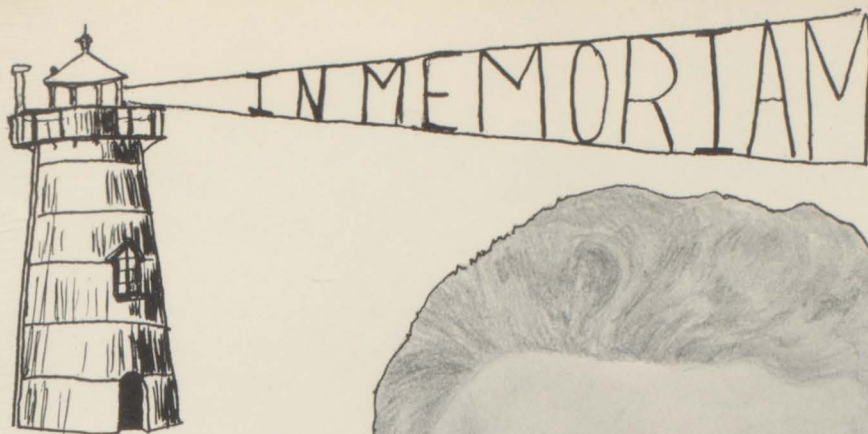

Not only has he been our class adviser for six years, but Mr. Lamb has given many hours of his time to Harbor High School in other ways.

Since he first came to Harbor in 1949, Mr. Lamb has taught biology, American History, and General Science; coached junior high sports; been official timer and scorekeeper for senior high football and basketball; taken charge of American Field Service at Harbor; served on the Athletic Awards Recognition Board; and is an honorary member of the Monogram Club.

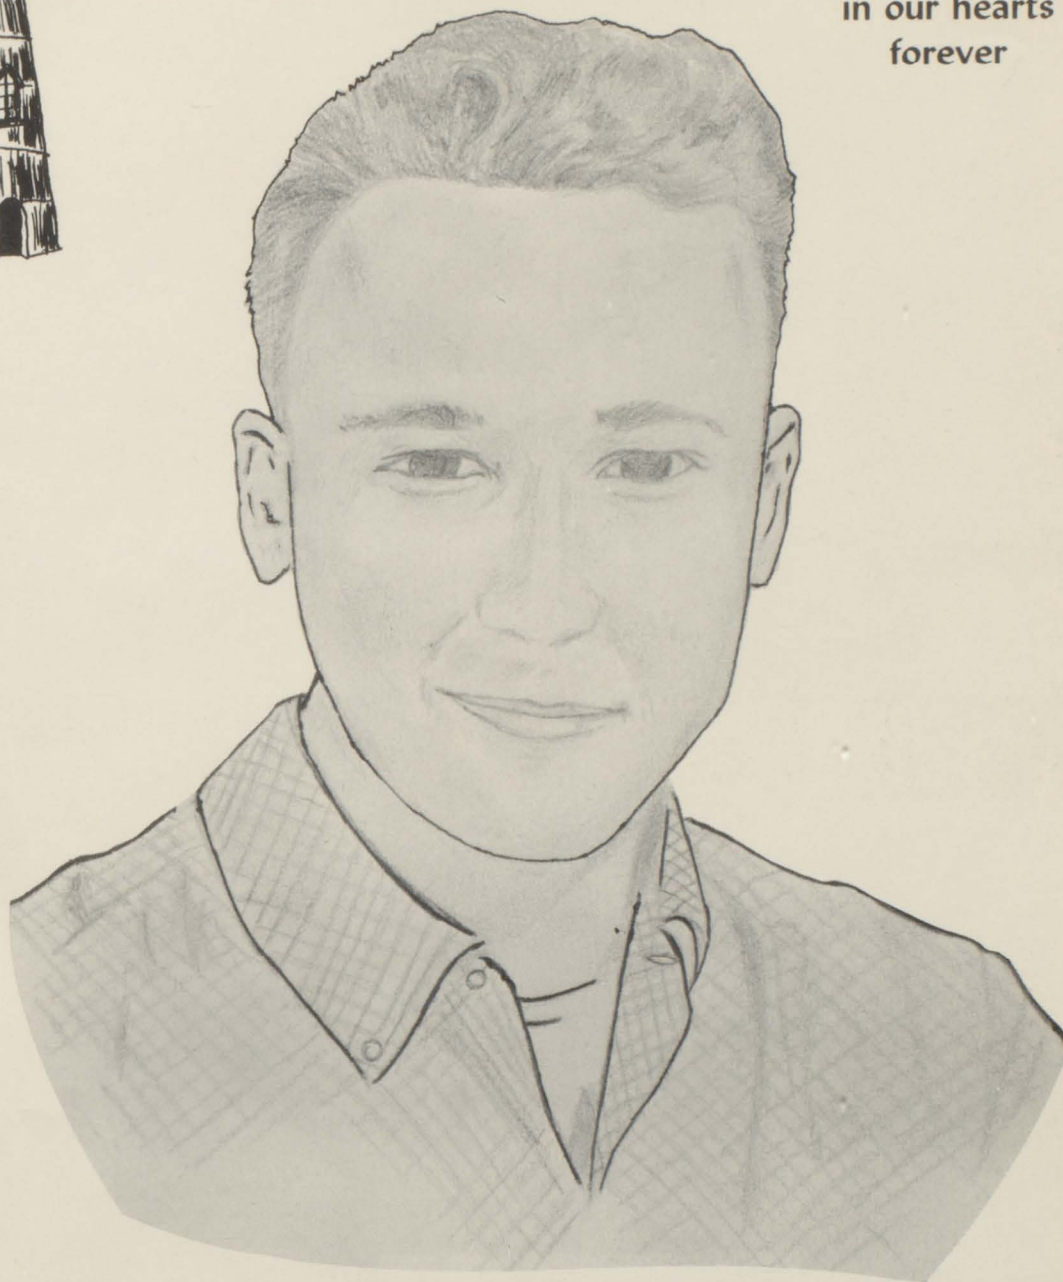

Also active in the community, he is a trustee of the Second Congregational Church.

Mr. Lamb has raised three daughters, who graduated from Harbor. The youngest is presently a college junior. Although it is difficult for a teacher to find time for extra duties, Mr. Lamb has willingly given his time, sincere interest, and whole-hearted effort for Harbor High School. We thank you, Mr. Lamb.

His memory will shine
in our hearts
forever

Terry Stofan, who had been a member of our class since seventh grade, unexpectedly passed away on April 2, 1963, during our junior year.

Terry, the only child of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Stofan, was well-known throughout Harbor High School for his friendly smile and had gained the warm respect and affection of everyone who knew him.

Music was one of Terry's favorite activities. He was considered one of the top ten in the band. He played the tenor saxophone in the junior, senior, pep, and dance bands. He was a member of the senior band council and also a sergeant of property.

Terry had been a Student Council representative, had participated in intramural sports, and had played a leading part in our junior class play.

Though Terry is now gone from us, he will always remain in the hearts of us all.

CLASS ADVISERS

Guiding the class of 1964 through our high school years were Lowell Lamb and Paul Lehman, Harbor teachers. Mr. Lamb has been our adviser since we were seventh graders and Mr. Lehman since our sophomore year.

We wonder if they will ever forget--or maybe be able to forget!--our class's many projects: car washes, bake sales, class plays, Homecoming mums, choosing graduation announcements and robes, and our crowning glory, the Junior-Senior Prom. We sincerely thank you, Mr. Lamb and Mr. Lehman, for all your interest, time, and help.

Through problems, bickering, and fuss—through thick and thin they guided us.

YEARBOOK ADVISER

Our deep appreciation and thanks go to Miss Mary M. Boyce, the 1964 yearbook adviser. She spent many extra hours and much thought working with all the yearbook committees.

In addition to all her duties as a Senior English and journalism teacher, Miss Boyce helped us, in countless ways, to produce what we hope is a fine yearbook.

ADMINISTRATION

He who, from zone to zone guides through the boundless sky thy certain flight,
In the long way that I must tread alone,
will lead my steps aright.

SUPERINTENDENT

Congratulations to the class of 1964, the MARINER staff, faculty, and students of Harbor High School.

The mariner has many navigational guides to direct his journey. Knowledge is like the beacon visible from your school. As the beam from the lighthouse guides a ship in its journey, knowledge can lead the individual.

It may help keep your life from running aground on the shoals of ignorance and intolerance. Knowledge can be a constant directing force in our lives and the lives of those around us.

A beacon must be constantly cared for and cleaned. We are always striving to make its beam more effective; to reach out ever further into the darkness. Just as the light of the beacon is strengthened, so must we constantly strive to strengthen our knowledge through continuous study and growth.

Best wishes for your future success and happiness. May the brightness of your beacon of knowledge serve you, your community, state, nation, and the world.

Oscar L. Musgrave

ADMINISTRATION

Members of the Board of Education are Dr. David E. Lusk, president, a veterinarian; Miss Henrietta McKinsey, vice president, a retired teacher; Mr. Warren K. Cowdery, Jr., Plant Manager, True Temper Corp.; Mr. Clifford L. Hughes, Purchasing Agent and Traffic Supervisor, USI Chemicals; Mrs. Florence Butcher, clerk; and Mr. Charles A. Meister, a retired teacher.

Harry Bowen, assistant superintendent of Ashtabula Area City Schools since 1961, received his B.S. degree from Ohio State University and his M.D. degree from Miami University. He has taught chemistry, physics, and biology and has been head football and basketball coach.

John Rathbone has been secondary supervisor of Ashtabula Area City Schools since 1960. He came to Ashtabula in 1958 and taught sixth grade.

It is my pleasure to congratulate the Senior Class. You have realized one of your greatest goals, but this is a beginning, not a stopping or resting place.

You are now young adults and will be on your own, with competition more rugged, help and advice less frequent. You will need to think clearly, give your best willingly, and use your learning widely.

I thank you for the contributions you have given our school and hope you have received the tools and faith necessary for continued pursuit of knowledge. I wish you success all the way.

J. B. E. Baker, Principal

For five years it has been my pleasure to know you.

One of the greatest satisfactions an educator can receive is to see students successfully negotiate the requirements for graduation while developing minds that are free.

Personal independence can exist only where minds have been unshackled from ignorance, dependence on opinions of others, fear of disagreeable facts.

Bombarded by subtle sloganeers seeking to convert us, we sorely need minds sharpened by hard intellectual work.

Asst. Principal

GUIDANCE DEPARTMENT

ELMER NAMY, school psychologist, has lived in Ashtabula for four years. He attended Western Reserve where he received his B.A. and M.A. degrees. At the time of this interview, he was writing a manuscript for his Ph.D. Mr. Namy's outside interests are woodcraft and fishing. He can speak four languages, which is quite an accomplishment. LIBRARIANS

Our versatile librarians are Miss GENEVRA DUCRO, who holds a B.A. from Mount Holyoke College and a Master's Degree in Library Science from Western Reserve. Mrs. MARIE MATTERN, who has been a librarian for eighteen years; and Miss HALLIE JO WARK, who is new this year. She works as a part time member. They greatly appreciate the student help and enjoy working in the new library.

BEHIND THE SCENES

New at Harbor is the cafeteria. The lunch line starts in the main hall and proceeds to the lunch room, where the print shop used to be. The three half-hour lunch periods keep the main hall in a constant state of confusion. The cafeteria workers are Mrs. WAYNE SIRONEN and Mrs. RICHARD BALOG.

The custodians at Harbor are BENNY LAAMANEN, ED KOSKI, GEORGE DAVIS, and ONNI KUULA.

ROBERTA ACIERNO, known to all as "Burpie," was most often seen at football and basketball games cheering . . . DELORES ADDAIR, known for her quiet air and shy little smile, will be remembered as the "quietest little mouse" in the senior class . . . JEAN AMIDON, a quiet, shy girl who was always talking about Dave . . . TERRY ANTHONY, "Ter," was always seen walking the halls with Sally. Terry's favorite sports were football and wrestling . . . MERLYN BAILEY, "Merle" to all of us, was new here this year. We don't know very much about him, but he was very polite and quiet . . . SUSAN BEHLING, to us "Susie," had a joke for every day of the year . . . A real fish in pool . . . DOUGLAS BEHN, better known as "Doug" was often seen on the football field and basketball court, playing up a storm. He was always roaming the halls without a legitimate excuse BRUCE BEIGHLEY was so very quiet that after all these years we still don't know much about him. He was always seen with RICK MIHALICK and was on the Cross Country Team . . . MEREDITH BENT, better known as "Mibs," was known for her long curly hair and for running up on Mr. Willey's lawn with a car. She was often seen in a little black volkswagon . . . BARBARA BORDEAUX, "Barb," had many special talents, some of which were losing her car, driving on other people's lawns, and getting stuck in the school parking lot.

You could always find JUDY BRYANT selling candy at noon and after school. Known to her friends as "Jud," she said she would never forget the time she fell down the north stairs in front of Mr. Blake . . . RICHARD CANDELA, better known to all as "Dick," was often seen limping around the halls during football season this year. Dick was captain of the football team . . . LaVERNE CARLO could be seen carrying his brush, sleeping in study hall, and flipping his pencil in class. We knew him better as "Mouse" . . . JACK CHRISTENSEN could usually be seen in the band room. He got the nickname "Dune Jumper" for driving his Volkswagon on the beach . . . One of the craziest things that ever happened to WILLA CLARK was when she put her books on the top of her locker and they fell off on her head. Nicknamed "Will," Willa held the record for being the quietest (?) girl in homeroom . . . Usually seen at St. Angelo's was JOSEPH COGNATA. Better known as "Joe," he will always be remembered for his parties . . . "Al" was the nickname for ELWOOD COLE. His main hobbies included cars, running movies, and managing a baseball team. His curly hair will long be remembered . . . GARY "Ears" COLE will long be remembered for his "careful" driving. Wherever you went, you could see Gary with his camera . . . Wherever there's music you would find KATHLEEN COPELAND dancing. Football and talking to girls were the favorite pastimes of Sue's twin brother, JOHN COURSEN. He was known for his curly blond hair, blue eyes, that "shy innocent" look, and friendly personality.

SUSAN COURSEN was known to all as just "Sue." She will always be remembered for her "Teddy-Bear-Like" voice, her big blue eyes, and sneezing in chemistry class. If you ever meet her in the hall she's sure to say "Hi!!!" . . . STEVEN COX said he almost made the honor roll once when he wasn't goofing off. Steve could always be seen coming late into classes in the morning and with Sally . . . VINCE CROFOOT likes this saying, "To help others learn what you can and teach what you learn." Nicknamed "Vande," he excelled in the Anti-Slippery Rock Club . . . Redheaded JON CUTLER will always be remembered for hanging around with LaVerne Carlo and sitting in journalism class writing and writing and writing . . . Curly hair is one characteristic of DAVID DANIELS, better known as "Dave," that will remain in the minds of his classmates. Dave's name will forever be linked with his St. John's girl friend, Anna . . . STEVE DeANNA seems to be the only senior boy who had his locker among the girls' lockers. "Steve" could always be seen with JANICE DiDONATO . . . "Mike," alias MARILYN DEBEVEC, had a favorite pastime tripping Mr. Utz when she came after the attendance slip during sixth period chemistry. Marilyn could often be seen blushing about absolutely nothing . . . JANICE, "Jane," DiDONATO could always be found with Steve. No one will ever forget Jane's long, long pony tail and "Oh, yeah!" . . . PAUL ERICKSON, "Pinky," will always be remembered for his plaid hat. Tall Paul excelled in basketball. His writing ability has won many honors . . . JON EVAR will forever remain in the minds of his fellow seniors as a chatterbox, who sometimes lost his temper.

"Throw Fear to the Winds"

DWIGHT FETTERS could always be found hanging around Manners and at Ashtabula High School in the print shop. He will always be remembered for his baby blue eyes . . . DIANE FRITTS will always be remembered for that sweet smile so early in the morning . . . friendly is the best word to describe her . . . Often seen bumming a ride to work, JOSEPH, "Joe" FUSCO remembers all his brother's detentions he had to make up because Jim gave his name instead of his own. You could see him, red hair and all, roaming the hallways . . . "I'm mad at you anyway" was a common saying of SUSAN GABLE. She loves writing and will always remember constantly getting two teachers mad at each other . . . BRIAN GAINES will be remembered for his abilities in sports football, basketball, and track. He could often be found playing basketball in his back yard . . . "I'll never forget the time I fell down the bleachers at the football game," says SHARON GARDNER. She could be found almost all the time with her best friend, Sue, and her favorite blue "taxicab" . . . LINDA GASKELL, "Lynn" may always be seen in the company of JUNE OLSON, goofing off or "falling off chairs in journalism class . . . JOSEPH GIANNELL, "Joe," could always be seen blushing about anything and everything. It fits in perfectly with his curly black hair. The seniors who were in the junior class play will never forget the time Joe was left standing on the stage . . . "I got caught skipping four times in one day," said CHARLES CRAIG GOEBEL, better known as "Turkey," Craig was always seen with Faye Capuano. About our class Craig says, "Harbor is losing the best class they ever had." . . . GERALD GOTTHARD, better known as "Jerry," could always be heard saying something very appropriate for the occasion in a cynical way.

"Gus," as he is commonly known to all, will be remembered as a football and basketball player, and for studying sooo hard . . . JOHN HAMILL was seen hanging around the pool halls with LaVerne. This "Hustler" was usually combing his hair in the hall . . . TOM HERLEVI will long be remembered for his very innocent looks, but on!! His slow way of doing things was completely nonchalant. Wonder what goes on in that mind of his? . . . DENNIS "Denny" HERTTUA claims the national record for tardiness. "Oh get outta here" was the favorite saying of this well-dressed, hot tempered senior. Denny's favorite hobbies were dancing and art . . . FORREST ANN HILL could usually be seen in the journalism room after school working on the yearbook. Better known as "Susie," her naturally curly blonde hair and cheerful smile will be remembered by us all . . . Carole Hummer will always remember being a senior at Harbor since this was her only year here. She was very bashful and shy, especially around boys . . . DAVID JOHNSON could be seen rodding around in his little green car, often in the direction of "Saints." He won't soon forget his "little reunions" with Mr. Kaura . . . GARY KARBACKA was our "strong silent type." More than once he accidentally (?) fell asleep in junior English class but certainly came awake on the baseball diamond . . . MICHAEL JASKELA, whose childhood nickname was "Buzz," was our "secret artist." He's a true blue Finn.

The second shortest girl in our class was JO ANN KEENAN, who is 4'11". She claims to have mastered the art of arguing. She lives by "Life is too short to take seriously." . . . BRUCE KOSKI could be seen shooting pool with JOE FUSCO or blowing up a hydrogen generator in chemistry lab. Bruce was known for his deerskin shoes . . . BRAD LaRUE will be remembered by his little red car. He will always look back on the capers of the senior boys and the time his car sank by the lighthouse . . . "Beethoven" is the nickname of DAVID LAVECK. We will always remember Dave for wanting to see a movie in government class and testing Volkswagens at Walnut Beach . . . It is surprising how two people can wear the same sweater on the same day, but not to JAMES, "Jimmy," LENGYEL and Bernie. What would basketball be like without Jimmy . . . Our favorite homecoming queen, BERNIE LICATE might always be seen walking with Jimmy. She will always be remembered for her freckles and darling dimples . . . LORELEI LINDENMAYER, known to all as Lorie, could often be seen wearing her boots because she forgot her shoes. We will always remember Lorie reminiscing about Joe and her weekends at OSU . . . VIRGINIA LUOMA, known to all as Ginny, will long be remembered for her long blonde hair worn in a flip and her dimples. Ginny excelled mainly in her art work which she did for the newspaper and yearbook . . . ROBERT, "Bob," MACAULAY will always remember the raids at his house at noon last year. He was happiest when he had a deck of cards with him . . . Will we ever forget the blonde hair and quietness of PAMELA MAENPA? Pam loved the color red and could be heard talking about Bill every day in English class.

DANIEL MAKI, better known as "Danny," will always be remembered for his musical ability and for carrying his brief case everywhere he went. Danny has been known to be Number One in everything . . . LAURI MAKI was always found daydreaming in Psychology, sleeping in his other classes! He was known as "Maxie or Magpie" . . . PAUL MARTELLO, known for his shyness and brown eyes, was great to watch on the football field. What a difference a girl can make!! SHARON MARTIN will always be remembered as "the quiet one." She could always be seen with Butch. Sharon liked writing shorthand, but had little luck trying to teach it to another senior girl sixth period . . . One of our majorettes, JACQUELINE MAY, could always be seen talking. Jackie will remember her high school years for homeroom 300 and our prom . . . ALICE McCULLOUGH, alias "Al," was often seen hitting people while walking down the hall or else tripping someone. What would the choir do without her tenor voice! . . . "I will always remember being a homecoming escort," says KENNETH MELARAGNO better known as "Ken" or "Mel." We'll never know how Ken had that snowball fight in our eleventh grade homeroom . . . CHERYL MERCILLIOTT, known as "Flirt" because of her flirting eyes, could always be seen clowning around. Asked if anything crazy ever happened to her, she replied, "I fell down the stairs at the Junior Class play." RICHARD "Rick" MIHALICK remembers vividly the time a certain teacher, namely Miss Boyce, used a water pistol on him. He will be remembered for not much to say, but oh, how he laughed . . . Often seen working in the cafeteria collecting the money was VICTORIA "Vicki" MONDA. Her big brown eyes and her love for sewing will never be forgotten.

GERALD NAPPI, known to most of us as the "Nose," was famous for being yelled at during shop. The teacher said, "Nappi! How can you be so dumb!" . . . PATRICIA NAPPI, better known as Patty, will long be remembered as co-editor of the "Mariner," for being class president for three years, and also for her lavishly decorated locker during the holiday season . . . LAWRENCE NARHI, better known as "Larry," was constantly chewing gum in Miss Boyce's third period English class. Larry could almost always be found back stage . . . JOHN NELSON was about the quietest boy in the Senior class. He was usually seen with a group of freshman girls. John will always be remembered for his blond hair and light blue eyes . . . MARTIN "Marty" NEMITZ was a girl's best friend. Curly hair must go with courtesy--this boy has them both. His hard work during football season didn't go unnoticed . . . DREW "Nemo" NIEMINEN will always be remembered for speeding with his Ford (s). Don't ever go hunting with him; his guns aren't even safe in a house! . . . KIM NORD-QUEST who's always on time for all of his English projects, will long be remembered for his shy little blush when Miss Boyce was teasing him in class . . . "I understand that, Mis Boyce, but . . ." was commonly heard from JAMES, "Jim," NUBER. If you needed to find Jim, you'd find him either in Miss Boyce's room or in the bookroom . . . JUNE OLSON will long be remembered for being Larry's sister. She could often be seen with Linda driving around . . . JOHN, "Jack," O'NEIL will always be remembered for his cute little remarks, funny faces, and cynical outlook toward the world.

Our Senior Class president, DONALD ORQVIST, otherwise known as Don, was quiet and well-liked. He was often found making incomplete lists for READER'S DIGEST reports! . . . ANDREW ORAM, our foreign exchange student, will never be forgotten. He was hardly ever seen without a blush and constant smile. We certainly hope that he has enjoyed his new home as much as we've enjoyed his being here. . . ROXANN "Roxie" OSTRANDER, who was usually pretty happy, was seen at the Variety Show singing with Diana. She had a time trying to hold meetings for three clubs! . . . ESTHER PASANEN, nicknamed "E'S," was often found talking about Dean or writing notes to Bonnie and Dean. Busy girl, huh, Dean? . . . What would we do without JACKIE PAULIK'S jungle shows?! Are you sure your last name isn't Madison? She was, no doubt, the greatest dancer of the Senior Class . . . MARY JO PETROS, known as Shorty, will be remembered rushing down the halls to get to the candy stand to work. The senior girls will never forget hearing long details about her love life . . . "Five foot two, eyes of blue," bleached blonde hair, clearly describes LINDA "Pudgy" PETRUZZI. She wishes Mr. Blake would return the cards he took while she was playing "fish" during lunch hour . . . It seemed that BARBARA POHJALA could never come out of chemistry lab without a cut finger or so. To her friends she was known as "Stretch." Anyone could see that she stood a tall 5' 9" . . . MICHAEL ROE excelled in singing. Mike, as he was better known, will never forget the great cheering section at basketball games in his senior year . . . JANET SCHROEDER was often seen with a new hair-do. Homeroom must be cold because she was always carrying her coat while in there.

Who was the only girl taking vocational education? Why that was BONNIE SEAGER, who spent more time at Ashtabula High than Harbor . . . "Tiny, petite, and ever so neat" best described MARQUITA "Marki" SEBASTIAN. Why did she like Ashtabula so much? Does the name Arnie bring to mind any clues? She could be heard saying "Oh, how tough!" . . . AUDREY SERZYNSKI, "That's our 'Aud's'," "Does she or doesn't she?" She could be found anywhere and everywhere with her favorite buddies, Sally Vitale and Kathy Copeland . . . VICKIE "little one" SNYDER was so quiet in her classes that no one even knew she was there. Some of her favorite pastimes were roller skating, dancing, and writing to Jeff . . . Always seen breaking crucibles with Lorie in chemistry lab was LUCILLE "Lucy" STEELE. Known for her shyness and blushing, you might see Lucy working in the library . . . Boxing with Terry was a main activity of SALLY SULIN. She was always willing for a good "Finn" cup of coffee. The craziest thing that ever happened to her was when she passed a test . . . "Suds" was "always there, a little late, but always there." Our little actor, WILLIAM SUTHERLAND, enjoyed giving teachers a bad time, especially Mr. Lehman. If you ever wanted to find him, just look on the stage or behind the curtains adjusting the lights, etc. . . . GERALD SVIGELJ was known to his intimate friends as "Gunner" and more commonly as "Jerry." He could always be heard saying "Oh, yeah?" . . . JAMES TAYLOR, "Jimmy," will always be recognized as the shortest boy in our class. He was also known as "J. T." . . . Tripping up the steps seemed to be a habit with SUSAN TAYLOR, commonly known as "Humphrey." She was often seen cutting up with Cheryl Mercillott.

"Knowledge Is Power"

Always streaking her hair, JANICE "Jan" TERRY broke the mimeograph machine every time her hands touched it. Her favorite sentence was "I got a letter from Jim" . . . FRED THEIS, better known to his friends as "Freddie," was another of our "parttime students," spending his afternoons up at AHS in the print shop. Fred was very active in the VIC club . . . RICHARD UITTO, known as "Dick," was our great french horn player. If you wanted to hear a good story, ask him about All Ohio Boys' Band . . . When you saw SALLY VITALE you could be sure that Steve was't far off. Sally, also known as "Sal," will long be remembered for her ability to get along with Mr. Armstrong . . . Did you ever see someone darnning his socks in class? Well, our friend "Buddy," CLAUDE WHEATTALL, was doing just that in American Government class. You can imagine the expression on Mr. Armstrong's face! . . . Having a shy but good sense of humor, GERALDINE "Gerry" WILKINSON owned a black registered quarter horse which she displayed at horse shows. She was known for saying "Car won't start" . . . FRANK WILLIS'S most outstanding characteristics were his fair hair and baby blue eyes. He always greeted you with a friendly "Hi." and then "How are You?" . . . Always being called to Mr. Blake's office for something the other Benson did was JON "Jab" BENSON. No one will ever forget his little green Carman ghia convertible. Backfiring cars, all makes and models, was his favorite pastime . . . BRUCE BYERS was just about the only boy in the senior class who wore a suit coat most of the time. He could always be seen riding in his little red sports car . . . JOHN WISNYAI, alias "Johnny," was known for his sharp, wise remarks. Since he loved to work on cars, he could always be seen with "greasy fingernails." . . . RICHARD, "Rick," HAAPALA was a quiet, reserved boy until he was among his friends. We know that Rick went around with a "mad-at-the-world look," but he wasn't really.

Two seniors take a last look at some old familiar places.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the Senior Class of 1964, being of sound mind and body, do this day of May 2, 1964, set down, in prescribed manner, this our last will and testament. Upon parting from these dear old halls of ivy, we would like the profound pleasure of leaving some remembrances of our days at Harbor High School.

To Mr. Baker, our principal, we leave the title for his first book, "My First 180 Days in Office." We also give him a bushel of dust and old, important looking papers (among them a "Mad" magazine to relieve pressures) to give his office that seasoned look.

To Miss Boyce, our overworked senior literature teacher and yearbook adviser, we leave several thousand old yearbook 3-R forms which she may fiendishly destroy and/or torture in any macabre way she sees fit. We also crown her with the title of "the fastest two-fingered typist east of Missouri."

To our friend and pal, Mr. Willey we affectionately leave the number of the Ashtabula Bar Association. In recognition of his past performances, we have arranged a big part for him on "The Defenders."

To Mr. Ague and Miss Tilton, we leave, several dozen well-thumbed college catalogs. Brace yourselves for next year's onslaught.

To Mr. Huff, we leave a hand-bound volume of "1001 Social Problems and How to Solve Them" and a hearty "How are you, Hello!"

To Mr. Armstrong, we leave the sweet memory of an excellent, hard working basketball team. We hope this will relieve the strain caused by thinking of his government classes.

To any interested junior boys, the "senior card sharks" leave the round table in the student lounge. Don't forget to hide the pennies in your shoes!

May the Junior Class carefully heed and abide by all the fine traditions, standards, and morals which the class of 1964 has upheld for 6 years. Try to avoid "marches to the office." They aren't very good for your health.

We leave the hope of better luck to next year's football team. However, in view of the circumstances, we will not, in fine old theater fashion, say "break-a-leg."

To all the future classes of H.H.S. we leave our habit of working together and cooperating to the fullest of our abilities. Ha!!!!

To our class advisers, Mr. Lamb and Mr. Lehman, we leave several million tissue flowers and a can of spray paint, salvaged from "The Garden of Eden."

To the junior girls, the Senior Girls Club leave their lack of organization, popcorn stand, and candy stand. May your feet freeze at football games and students mob you at noon.

And last, but not least, with a sigh of relief, we, the Class of 1964, leave--ourselves!

Signed and sealed by the presence of unwilling witnesses this day of May 2, 1964, by

ACADEMIC

The Harbor Chapter of Quill and Scroll, international society for high school journalists, is composed of students who have done outstanding work on newspaper and yearbook staffs.

To qualify for membership, a student must be a junior or a senior, must rank scholastically in the upper third of his class at the time of his initiation, and must be recommended to the executive secretary of the organization by his publications advisers.

New members are initiated in a candlelight ceremony held each spring. A banquet is held for both old and new members in the spring following the initiation.

HONORS

Character, leadership, scholarship, and service are the qualities on which membership is based for the National Honor Society, the highest scholastic honor a student may achieve. Members, who are chosen by the Awards Committee, must be in the top fifteen per cent of their class.

Each spring a formal initiation is held in a school assembly, where the juniors and seniors who are being initiated are presented with their Honor Society pins by the members of the Society. During the candle-light ceremony the meaning of the four qualities is interpreted for the new members and the student body.

Seated around the table are Don Orqvist, president; Forrest-Ann Hill, James Nuber, Alice McCullough, secretary-treasurer; Paul Erickson, vice president; Daniel Maki, Lorelei Lindenmayer, Richard Candela, and Meredith Bent, members of the Honor Society.

Our Queen Bernie

With many cheers from the crowd, Bernadette Licate was crowned Homecoming Queen for 1963 during half-time ceremonies at the Harbor vs. Madison game.

Crowning the queen was the climax of campaigning for the five candidates--Bernadette, Susan Coursen, Diane Fritts, Forrest Ann Hill, and Marquita Sebastian.

Amid an expectant hush, the candidates were escorted onto the football field by seniors Jim Lengyel, Mike Roe, Joe Cognata, Steve Cox, and Ken Melaragno.

Below: During half-time ceremonies, Principal J. B. E. Baker presented Bernie with flowers, following tradition. Her father, Bernard Licate, escorted her to and from the car.

"THE MORNING STAR OF MEMORY."

As juniors, we spent many long hours decorating for our prom, "Garden of Eden." Naturally we felt this was the most beautiful prom of all!

As couples entered into the transformed gymnasium over a white bridge spanning an artificial stream by a forest mural, they saw a gigantic half circle of white tissue "flowers" suspended from the blue ceiling on which was written "Garden of Eden" in green flowers.

A huge mural of the setting sun lit the southern wall and live trees trimmed with multi-colored flowers formed a forest grove. Eve, a store mannequin, in all her glory of golden leaves and flowing hair, was posed handing an apple to the evil green serpent, slithering from a tree.

To the strains of a dance band's music, the couples drifted through the grove and around a pond trimmed with colored lights.

Our prom left starry-eyed memories of a wonderful evening for everyone.

"Garden of Eden"

"Are you SURE we have to make more flowers?"

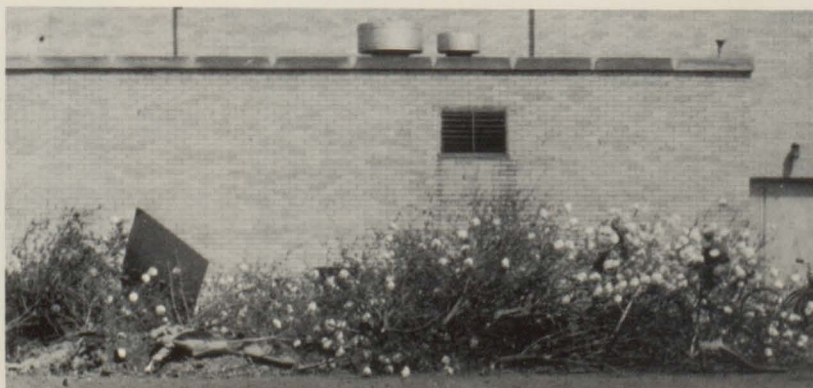

"They are playing 'King of the Risers', of course!"

"Brave Larry and his live trees."

"That was the Prom that was."

"THE SOLID GOLD CADILLAC"

"Take five, kids."

"Roses to our director."

"Who needs words?"

"We did it! We're a success!"

On November 16 and 17, 1963, a hush fell in the HHS auditorium and the curtain rose on our junior class play, "The Solid Gold Cadillac," written by George Kaufman and Howard Teichmann.

Directed by Miss Betty Jean O'Dell, dramatics coach and teacher, the play revolved around the fiasco caused by a little old lady who took over a large company "lock, stock, and gavel."

Hard working cast members were Michael Roe, Michael Guides, Bob Macaulay, Terry Stofan, Bill Sutherland, Louise Brink, Meredith Bent, and Paul Erickson, Barbara Bordeaux, Virginia Luoma, Daniel Maki, Forrest-Ann Hill, Alice McCullough, Sharon Gardner, Barbara Pohjala, Linda Petruzzi, Jean Amidon, Roxann Ostrander, Janice Terry, Joe Giannell, Susan Gable, and Lorelei Lindenmayer.

"The 'execs' have a conference."

"Oh, what a play party!"

"FATHER OF THE BRIDE"

When the bride's heart's desire was a big wedding and the groom pleaded for a small one, everybody got into the act. Both families took sides, set up camp, and went to battle in our senior class play, "Father of the Bride," presented March 20 and 21 in the HHS auditorium.

The clash turned into a hilarious comedy which proved entertaining to both actors and audience.

Under the direction of Miss Betty Jean O'Dell, members of the cast were Dan Maki, Meredith Bent, Forrest-Ann Hill, Bob Macaulay, Bill Sutherland, Andrew Oram, Ginny Luoma, Gerry Wilkinson, Barbara Bordeaux, Sue Coursen, Doug Behn, Jean Amidon, Jackie May, John Nelson, Denny Herttua, and John Coursen.

"Danny and Andy strike a pose."

"Every story has a happy ending."

"Family strife, as usual."

"The movers go to work."

"What's so interesting?"

"HAPPY BIRTHDAY MR. SHAKESPEARE!"

Dear Mr. Shakespeare,

To commemorate your four hundredth birthday, we dedicated our 23rd Annual Variety Show to you.

We felt that you, as a fellow actor and writer, would appreciate both the fresh talent and the original acts in our show.

We know that you would also understand the hours of hard work behind the show, that thrilling and scary feeling as the curtain opened, and that moment of triumph as we heard the appreciative applause of each of our three audiences.

Performing in the singing and dancing acts, the music and monologues, the pantomimes and skits were the Thespians, the Choir, the Senior Girls, the Modern Dancers, the Madrigals, the Majorettes, and many talented individuals of HHS.

Roxann Ostrander reigned as Miss Varieties of 1964. At the close of our show Barbara Pohjala had the coveted role of Goddess of Liberty.

Thank you, Mr. Shakespeare, for all that you contributed to the stage.

Sincerely yours,
Students of HHS

Andy Oram's American family is made up of Dr. and Mrs. Arthur B. Shaul, their son Bill, a junior at Harbor, and daughters Martha and Eileen. Martha is an eighth grader at Columbus Junior High, and Eileen is in sixth grade at Thomas Jefferson Elementary School.

"When we met Andy in Cleveland last summer, the only way we could recognize him was by his height. If he wasn't six feet three inches, we would have missed him," Bill commented.

"Having Andy as a member of our family is just great. He has really become a part of our family," he continued. "We have enjoyed every minute of his stay in America. Andy has had a wonderful effect on our family. His beautiful manners and wonderful sense of humor brighten every day."

Andy Oram, our American Field Service exchange student for 1964, is high in the esteem and affection of his fellow students. Andy, a good friend to all Harbor students, has also been a fine student in the classes of HHS teachers.

"Just great! I feel very much at home" is Andy's feeling toward our school, city, and country. "When I arrived in New York last July, I was overwhelmed. It's a pretty big city."

Harbor's sixth foreign student hails from Kimberley in the Cape Province of South Africa. He has a sister and two brothers. Andy's father is Dean of an Anglican cathedral in South Africa. His mother, in addition to raising a family, often serves as a substitute teacher at a local high school.

The American Field Service sponsors foreign students in America and sends American students to many foreign countries to promote better international relations and deeper understanding of world neighbors.

Ashtabula's AFS chapter is made up of interested adults and high school students. Harbor High School's representatives are Forrest-Ann Hill and Paul Erickson.

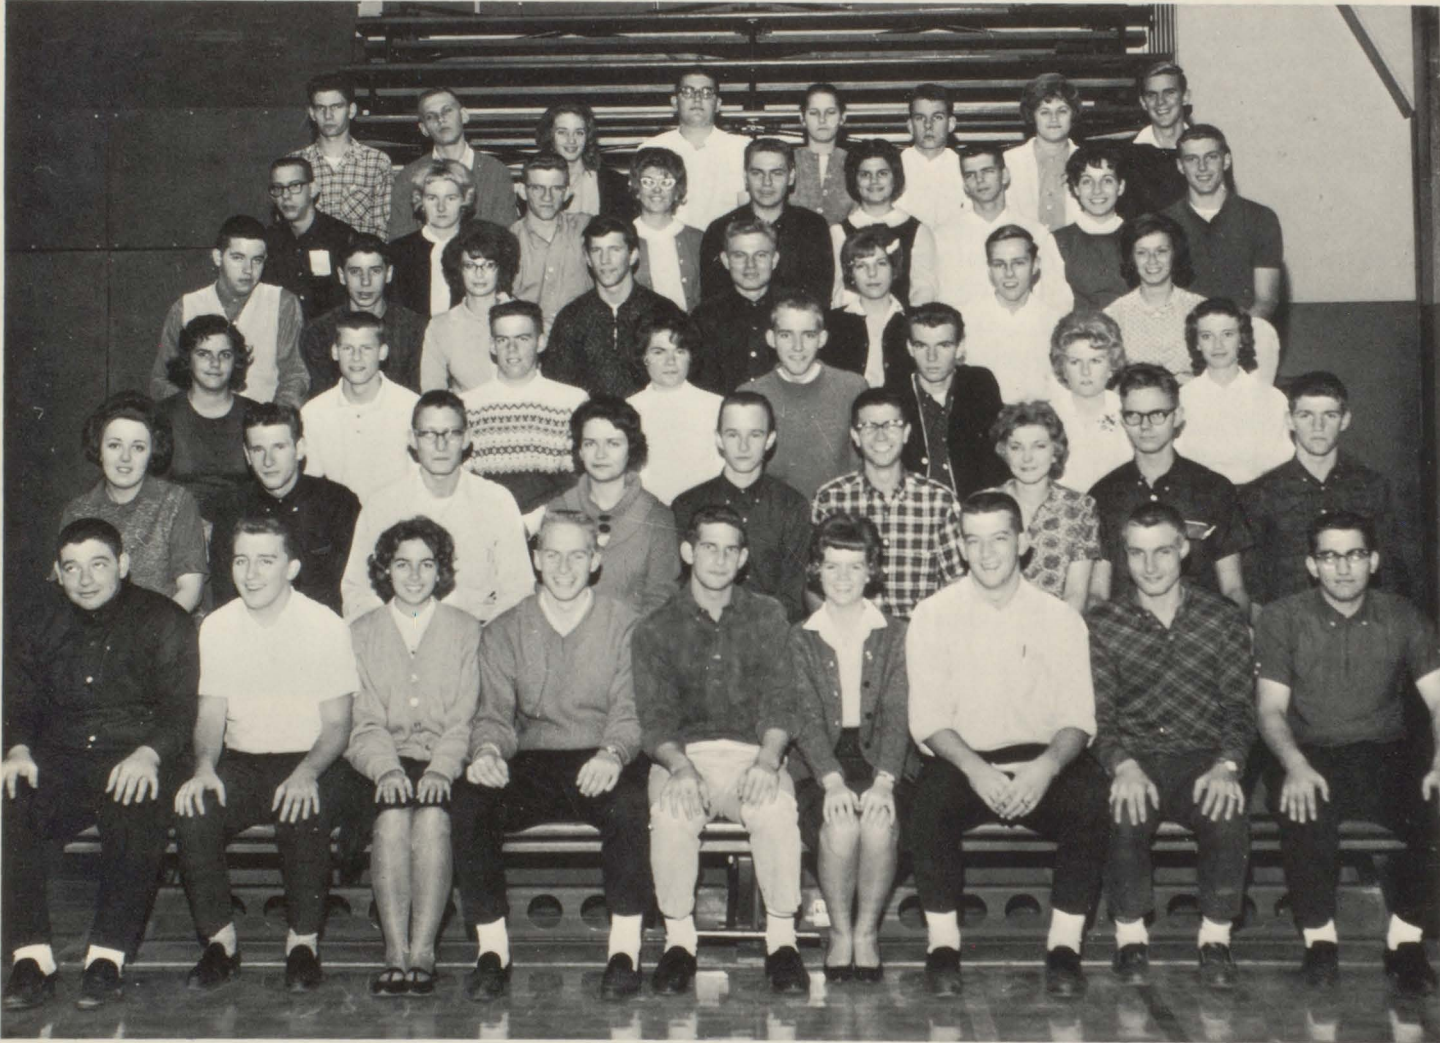

A worthwhile organization, the club plans parties and activities for northeastern Ohio's exchange students.

Susie and Paul show Andy an H.H.S. yearbook, to acquaint him with our school.

"Friends depart and memory takes them . . .

As we look back over our junior and senior years, many colorful memories crowd into our minds: the wild time we had building a white bridge from risers, hauling in trees, and making a pond, all for our prom, and Mr. Lehman madly spraying blue paint from his spray gun; proudly flashing our class rings; sitting in "300" as seniors for the last time; and so-called class meetings. Other unforgettable memories are explosions in the chemistry lab, with glass flying in all directions; study hall huddles in the morning and at noon; that harried feeling that comes from being behind in ALL our classes; the Christmas decorations of the senior girls' lockers which mysteriously disappeared every night; heated psychology discussions; our teams' tragedies and triumphs; the feeling that "we've finally arrived" when we were measured for our caps and gowns; and for the yearbook committees the hectic rush to meet deadlines on time.

This, perhaps, is the last time we will all be together. The class members who helped produce this yearbook hope that when graduation is past, it will help the Class of 1964 to recollect some of the best years of our lives.

The end has finally come, and we are left with a few headaches and the finished product. We hope this year-book will bring back memories of school and fun for both the seniors and under-classmen.

To those many many people who have helped us, Miss Boyce, our hard working committees and their chairmen, Pete Pretner, the American Yearbook Representative, and Art Taylor, our photographer we want to give our sincerest thanks. Without you we'd be lost. Our appreciation also goes to all the patrons and advertisers who helped finance the Mariner; we couldn't have done it without you.

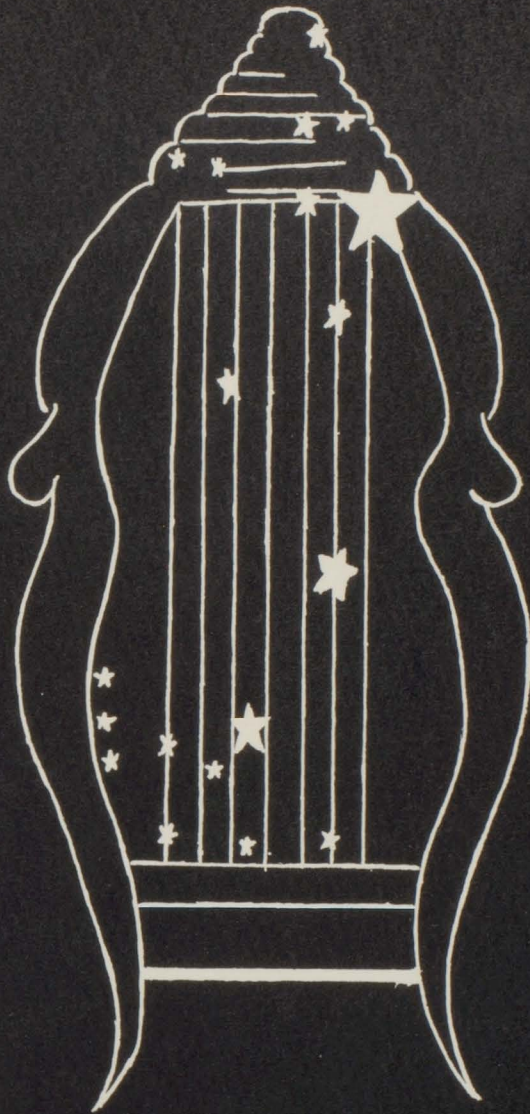

Last, but by no means least, we would like to say thanks to the administration and faculty. How often we interrupted the daily schedule for one reason or another!

Thanks again to everyone for a job well done.

SENIOR GIRLS

The Senior Girls' Club is a social and service organization to which all senior girls belong. The club has given its services to the school at various times.

The girls have made and sold the popcorn at all home football games, run the candy stand at noon and after school during activities period, and adopted a family for Thanksgiving. The money made from the popcorn and candy is given as a gift to the school.

Among the many social activities of the club were the regular meetings, a Halloween party, initiating the junior girls into the club, and putting on the Homecoming Dance. Because of the new setup in school this year, the meetings were held after school during the activities period.

The officers were Barbara Pohjala, president; Bernadette Licate, vice-president; Marquita Sebastian, secretary; and Roberta Acierno, treasurer. Advisers are Miss Christine Rishell and Mrs. Raymond Edeburn.

SENIOR MEN

The Senior Men's Club consists of all the senior boys, sixty-three to be exact. The purpose of the organization is to build a better relationship between the senior boys and faculty and to give service to others. The club has not been in existence very long. The Senior Men's Club adviser is John Ague, guidance counselor. The officers of the club are Jon Benson, president; Andrew Oram, vice-president; James Lengyel, secretary; and Marty Nemitz, treasurer.

LIBRARY CLUB

The Usher Squad was made up of about forty-one junior and senior girls whose main duties were to escort guests, take tickets, and hand out programs at any public function held within the school. An executive committee for the group was made up of Joyce Grippi, chairman; Carol Toomey, assistant chairman; Faye Capuano, Kathy Heino, and Suzanne Whipple--secretaries. Miss Eleanor Tilton is the adviser.

The Red Cross helps the community, sends boxes overseas, and is mainly a service organization. They had a drive and continued a correspondence album which was started last year. Their adviser is Mr. Huff and their officers were Roxann Ostrander, president; Leta Jo Dieffenbacher, vice-president; Shareen Karbacka, secretary; and Trudy Towers, treasurer. Members are: ROW 1: Cathy Andersen, Connie English, Shareen Karbacka, Leta Jo Dieffenbacher, Charlotte Nappi, Lonette Piiipponen, Mary Jo Petros. FRESHMAN Y-TEENS

Some of the activities carried on by the Freshman Y-Teens this year were selling nuts and candy and a play-day at the YM-YWCA in which Y-Teens from all city schools participated.

Officers of the club are Karen Rinehart, president; Sharon Swanson, vice-president; and Karen Thiel, secretary-treasurer. Marlene Lehtonen is the inter-club representative and Miss Karen Bricklemeyer is the adviser of the group.

SENIOR HIGH Y-TEENS

The Senior Y-Teens have had a very busy year under the leadership of Marlene Niemi, president; Shareen Karbacka, vice-president; Mary Lu Matrisciano, secretary; Lois Olsen, treasurer; and Miss Joan McQuain, adviser to the group.

Among other things done for activities this year were the selling of nuts, the selling of candy at Christmas, and a visit to the Smith Home at Christmas. The girls also did some knitting during meetings. A trip to the Ohio State Fair sometime during the year was planned.

The Y-Teens are affiliated with the YM-YWCA where some of their activities take place.

FTA

The Harbor Chapter of the Future Teachers of America is an organization for high school students interested in teaching. Affiliated with the National Education Association, F.T.A. is designed to acquaint tenth, eleventh, and twelfth grade students with a teaching career through actual experience.

Officers are Jean Amidon, president; Eugene Perchak, vice-president; Susan Coursen, secretary; Penny Ray, treasurer; Lucille Steele, historian; James Surbella, parliamentarian. Teacher-adviser is Mrs. Uno Eskelin.

This is the club's first year at H.H.S. Members serve their school, its teachers, fellow students, and the community as they learn about teaching as a vocation.

STUDENT COUNCIL

One of the main purposes of the Student Council is to govern and represent the student body. Students have the right to suggest ideas concerning school projects and affairs to their representatives, who in turn submit the suggestions to the officers and other representatives. After seriously discussing and studying these ideas and suggestions at Council meetings, the members vote on them. In this manner the Student Council is supposed to be the instrument providing adequate solutions to many vital school problems and promoting the student body's interest in school affairs and activities. In short, it is a link between the student body and the administration.

Because of the redistricting of the area, school elections were held in the fall. Those elected were Jim Nuber, president; Doug Behn, vice president; Jackie May, secretary; and Marquita Sebastian, treasurer.

The Student Council chartered the different clubs in the school, handled Penny Wednesday for the support of the American Field Service, set up the assemblies, and assisted in organizing guides for Parent-Teacher Night. They have purchased three film strips concerning councils to instruct the members on parliamentary procedure. They also wrote a new constitution pertaining to the four-year high school. Their adviser is Murray M. Blake.

Peter Huggins, Bill Sutherland, and Jim Nuber make up the stage crew. The stage crew take care of the lighting back stage, on stage, and in the auditorium. They work on the stage setting up equipment, scenery, etc., for plays, assemblies, and the Variety Show. Peter is a member of the junior class and Jim and Bill are seniors. The adviser for the group is Mr. Harrylee Utz.

All potential Thespians must present a skit as part of their initiation. Lower left: Chris and Gerry Wilkinson "spruce up" during their skit, a parody on chorus girls. NATIONAL THESPIANS

Harbor's National Thespian Troupe, 163, is under the direction of their adviser, Miss Betty Jean O'Dell.

Among the club's plans for this year were two initiation banquets, and a One Act Play Night with plays presented by the freshman and sophomore classes and the Thespians.

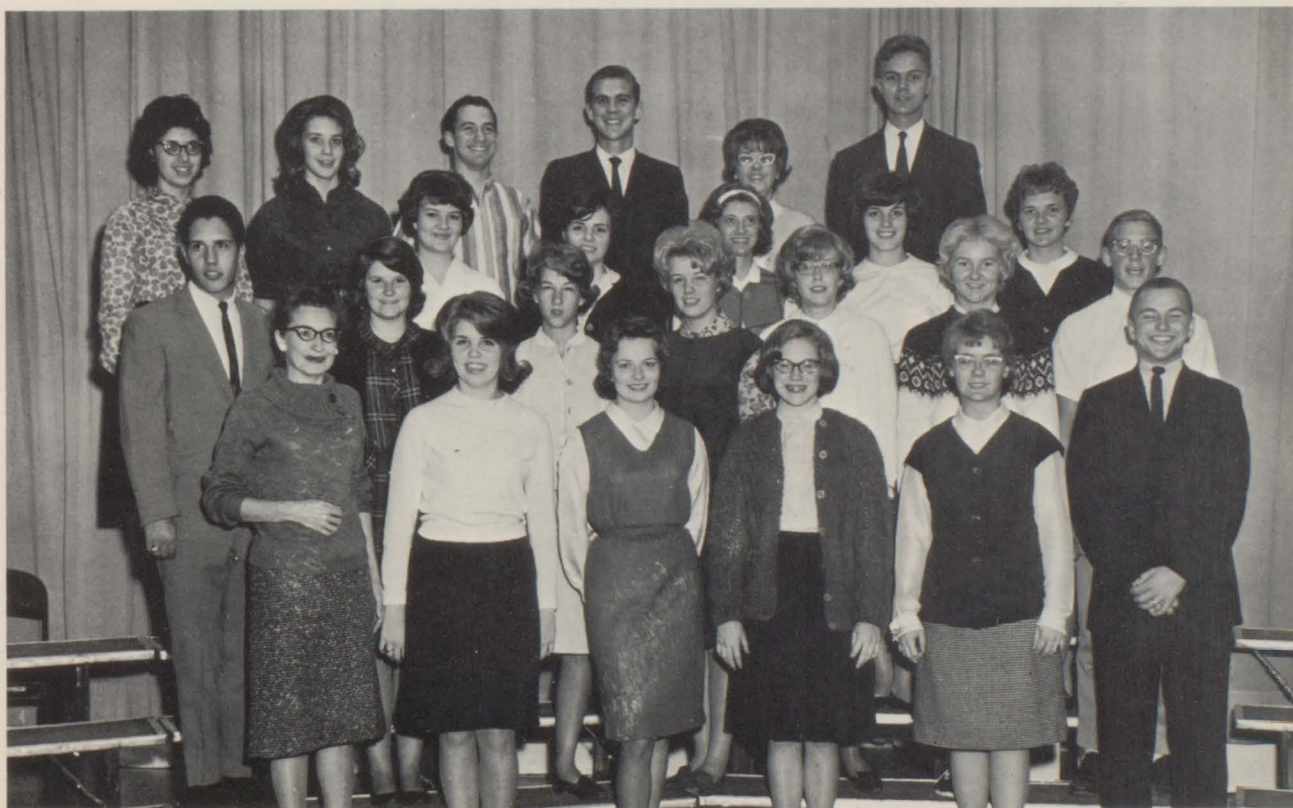

A Christmas party, the Variety Show, and assemblies were also included in their activities.

Officers of the club were William Sutherland, president; Daniel Maki, vice-president; Meredith Bent, secretary; Susan Gable, treasurer; and William Shaul, sergeant-at-arms.

LANGUAGE CLUBS

The Latin Club is composed of fifty members. Mrs. May Hurst is the adviser. The purpose of the club is encouraging interest in Latin. It meets regularly. Adopting a family for Christmas, having social meetings for all Latin students were some of their projects. Jennifer Peterson was president, Rosemary Westcott was secretary, and Linda DeBold was treasurer.

Having twenty-three members, the French Club meets once a month for informal gatherings. Foreign correspondence, a Christmas party at the Children's Home, and boxes sent overseas were various projects.

G.A.A.

In order to develop co-ordination and to profit from the exercise that is so necessary for poise and good health, students strive to improve in physical agility. Participation in the intramural sports of the Girls' Athletic Association provides the opportunity for physical agility and allows girls to "loosen up" after the tensions of the school day.

Officers of the G.A.A. this year were Roxann Ostrander, president; Barbara Pohjala, vice-president; Becky Kellogg, secretary; Betsy Pearson, treasurer, Trudy Towers, sergeant-at-arms. Adviser is Mrs. Gloria Openheimer.

MONOGRAM CLUB

The purpose of the Monogram Club is to recognize boys who lettered in the various sports. They have their own constitution and rules governing their meetings. They had various activities and money-making projects. They ran the snack shack at basketball games; they helped purchase the pennants in the gym; they sold sweatshirts; they held a Monogram Club dance; and had various other projects for athletics. The high standards of the club are to set an example for the other students and recognize our school among others. Their adviser is John Abel.

MODERN DANCERS

A group of sophomore dancers do a takeoff on Peter Gunn in assembly.

The Modern Dancers performed variety and interpretive dances throughout the year for various school functions. This year the club consisted of twenty-three members, seven of which were members last year. To join the club a prospective member had to pass try-outs. A record was played and the girl had to make up her own interpretation of a dance on a certain subject. A walk was also done. This gave the other members a chance to see how much poise, balance, and coordination the new girl had before the voting took place. Officers of the club were Susan Gable, president; Lonette Piipponen, vice-president; Lois Olsen, secretary; Barbara Merritt, treasurer; and Cheryl Pearson, sergeant-at-arms. Miss Joan McQuain advises the club.

The Pep Club is a new organization at Harbor this year. Membership was opened to any interested student. They attended all games and sat in a special cheering section. Most of the out-of-town games were also attended by Pep Club members. Mr. Freeman is the adviser of the club.

"Conference"

"He flies through the air with the greatest of ease."

"Jim's got flubber."

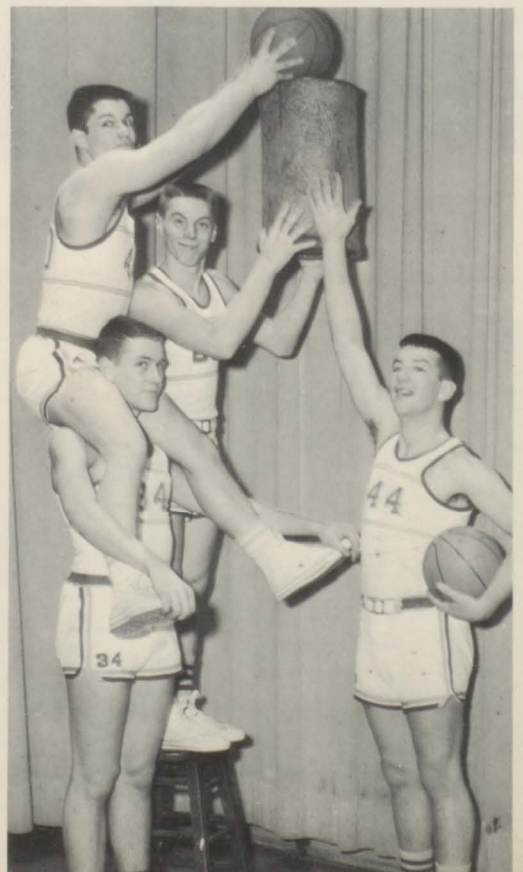

Harbor began its '63-64 basketball campaign with 7 straight victories in a row before being stopped 54-62 by Edgewood.

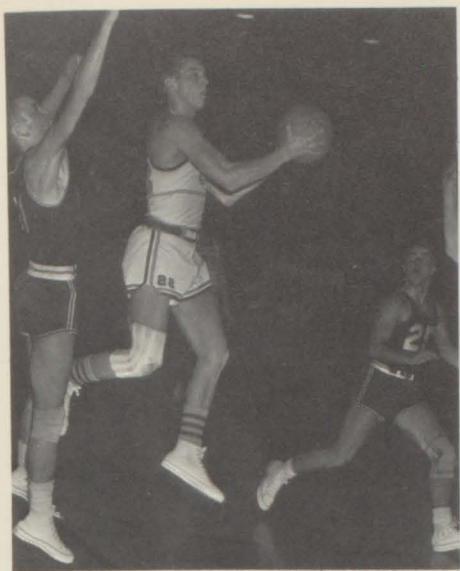

The successful Mariners continued by winning 4 of their last 9 encounters. Although Harbor lost the last 3 games, the Mariners made it rough for their opponents and lost each game by a close margin.

Harbor concluded its winning season with a 9-5 record in the WRL, tied with Jefferson for second place. It chalked up a good over-all record of 12-6.

In Harbor's first meeting with arch-rival Ashtabula, the Mariners overcame a 20 point third period deficit to win an important victory 61-59 in overtime. In the second encounter Harbor played a good game all the way but lost a close one 59-58. The win gave Ashtabula first place in the City Series and the Mariners second place.

RESERVE BASKETBALL

Harbor's junior varsity won 6 and lost 12.

Their victories were a 40-13 decision over Fairport, a 53-16 stomping on Perry, a 40-26 win over Chardon, another 44-18 victory over Perry, a 43-25 decision over Madison, and a 33-22 count over Rowe.

The year, though not a winning one, promised good future Harbor material. The junior varsity exists to develop material for varsity teams. Each team member was given the chance to play in each game; thus each was able to develop his own abilities.

"The End"

Cindermen specializing in field events of 1963 were ROW 1: Terry Anthony, Allan Ray, John Coursen, and Brian Gaines. ROW 2: Rodger Gustafson, Paul Erickson, and Bill Mateja.

The cindermen ended a successful 1963 track season with a record of 7 wins --including 4 triangular meets and 2 dual meets--with a perfect league record, placed 14th in the District, and ranked third in the city series. They took firsts in dashes, pole vault, shot put, discus, mile, and relays.

Head coach for the cindermen, Elmer Gray, has held the position for 18 years. Comparatively few of the 1963 team were lost through graduation, so that prospects looked good for a successful 1964 season.

CROSS COUNTRY

Coach Elmer Gray poses with his lettermen Chuck Pickens, Joe Giannell, Ed Green, Jon Freetly, Andy Oram, Bruce Koski, Frank Stewart, Warren Cole.

Harbor's first cross country team finished fourth in the WRL with a 3-7 record.

In their first meet of the season Harbor was defeated by Madison. They placed second in their next contest, which was a tri-meet with Edgewood and Ashtabula. The Mariners were defeated in their next three meets by Jefferson, Madison, and Edgewood.

Their first win in the WRL was their next meet against Perry. To conclude their season, the Mariner thinclads lost to Jefferson and Bula.

GOLF

The 1963 girls' golf team had a short and sweet season, short in that it consisted of one match, with Madison, and sweet in that they won. Year end activities and rain cut out other matches.

Mary Ellen Andersen and Forrest-Ann Hill, pictured at right, are the only members of last year's golf team who were not seniors.

Golf was not a spectator sport but afforded a spring activity for several Harborites. All of the boys in the competition team of 1963 returned for another season in 1964. The girls lost three of their members through graduation but had two left to form a nucleus for 1964's team. Both coaches were also back.

The boys' golf team of 1963 had an average season with 6 wins, 7 losses, and 1 tie. They placed fourth in the league match, ninth in the district and second in a triangle match.

The Harbor freshman basketball squad finished the '63-'64 season with a record of 3 wins and 12 losses.

Harbor's 3 victories were a 48-22 decision over Kingsville, a 51-32 win over Rowe, and finally a 28-26 squeaker over Conneaut.

Although the freshman squad lost 12 games, they made some of them close. Jefferson beat them by only 3 points, with a 36-33 victory, and Madison won by just 4 points, 29-25.

Harbor's other 10 losses were to the following schools: Jefferson 43-33, Ashtabula 33-24, Edgewood 49-26, Pymatuning Valley 29-17, Geneva 54-29, Ashtabula 55-20, Edgewood 63-30, St. John 29-16, and Geneva 36-26.

The freshman basketball managers are Donald Shaughnessy and Tim Rill.

The Harbor High baseball team, coached by Wilbert Willey, ended its 1963 spring season with an 11-3 record.

Many of the boys on the 1963 team were seniors and consequently are not pictured here.

The present experienced juniors and seniors will form the nucleus for the 1964 team.

"Where did that ball go, anyway!"

Harbor saw a lot of intramural activity this year.

The senior boys organized a team of Globetrotters, who competed against local disk jockeys. The men teachers organized the Harbor Schoolmasters team, and, maybe in self defense, the women of our faculty set up their own basketball team.

After school on Mondays and Wednesdays the gym was kept busy with boys' intramurals, under the direction of Dan Freeman. Tuesdays and Thursdays saw the girls tossing basketballs and batting badminton birds under the eyes of Mrs. Bill Oppenheimer.

"Make that basket, Jerry!"

"The Globetrotters huddle during a game."

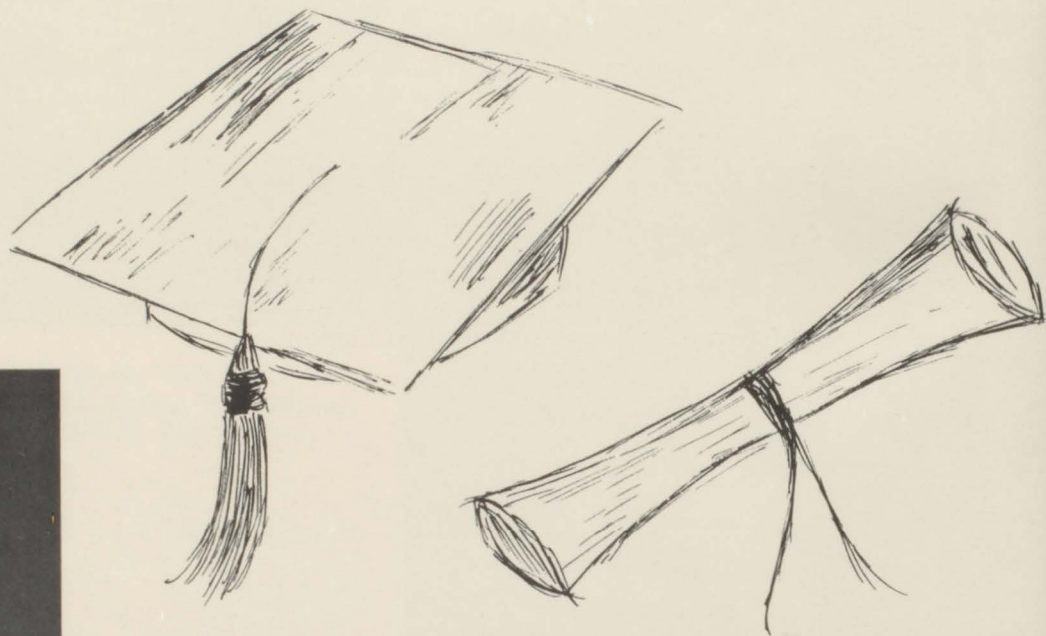

ROW 1: Frank Willis, Jon Evar, Larry Narhi, Jon Benson, Gary Karbacka, LaVerne Carlo. ROW 2: Craig Goebel, Bob McCaulay, Joe Cognata, Jerry Svigelj.
